

STUDENT SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

October 21, 2007

Do you ever act unnatural when you're doing something you know you shouldn't be doing? Why do you think we do this?

Have you ever gotten busted for doing something you'd done? If so, what was it?

Do you think it is possible to keep something secret and never get busted for it?

What are ways you avoid dealing with your junk?

READ:

Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. People reap what they sow.
Galatians 6:7

What does this verse say about the junk in your life?

Do you have people around you who are struggling with something and keeping it to themselves?

If so, are you have a hard time figuring out what to do?

What are your options?

READ:

Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.
Galatians 6:2

Do you have anything in your life you're hiding, something you're ashamed of?
Are you ready to deal with it?

Do you have people around you that could never do anything to make you love them less?

Is this really how we should feel about other people?

READ:

Nothing can separate us from God's love — not life or death, not angels or spirits, not the present or the future, and not powers above or powers below. Nothing in all creation can separate us from God's love for us in Christ Jesus our Lord.
Romans 8:38-39

Do you believe, deep in your heart, that God loves you no matter what you've done or will do?
